HELPING BABIES FROM THE BENCH

By applying the science of early childhood development to decision making, judges can break the cycle of maltreatment that plagues families involved in the child welfare system—zero to three.org

June 4-5, 2008

The Judges of the Separate Juvenile Courts have invited all of the County Juvenile jurisdiction judges to join them at their annual meeting for an important education session featuring a focus on the needs of the youngest parties before the courts.
